Architecture discussion notes

DMTF Profiles proposal

We will discuss this on the 18th of August. John Leung from Intel should be present for this. Jonas and Gautam from HPE will present the current status on ODIM profiles.

Properties for UpdateService

Not discussed. Rafal from Intel will present this on a future date.

Support for redis streams as alternative to Kafka bus

There was a discussion on what message bus architecture. One thought is that message bus should be part of event service internally. If a generic redfish event listener can populate the message bus, plugin implementers need not have to support different message buses in their code. The current implementation uses the message bus as part of the ODIMRA/plugin infrastruture only.

Governance meeting notes

no discussion.
